

September 16, 2014

A $130 million overhaul of the existing 1973 structure will update nearly every portion of the Buffalo Bills campus. Scope includes turning the former press box into a facility dedicated solely for radio and TV broadcasts, two luxury 40-person luxury suites are being built and a new press box. Fans will be greeted by new digital scoreboards, a 12,000 sq. ft. Bills store and the addition of 14 new bathrooms and five new concession stands. This fast-track project is anticipated for completion before the start of the 2014-2015 season. Join us to learn more about this project and about other local projects making up the Buffalo Resurgence!

Frank L. Ciminelli II

Senior Executive Vice President

With over two decades of experience, Frank L. Ciminelli has a reputation for providing a fast-track delivery on complex, large-scale projects. Able to anticipate and overcome challenges unique to fast-track construction, he marshals the resources of each project team to achieve the best solutions for his clients.

As senior executive vice president for project acquisition & planning, he oversees LPCiminelli's business development, preconstruction and virtual design and construction efforts. His portfolio includes public-private partnerships, program management and construction management for the company's multimillion-dollar private clientele projects. He is a hands-on expert in all aspects of preconstruction, including budget development, master activity scheduling, and logistics planning. A few of Mr. Ciminelli's current projects include:

Conventus Center for Collaborative Medicine, SUNY at Buffalo School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences, and Ralph Wilson Stadium, Orchard Park, NY.

Frank has a B.S in Industrial Engineering from Marietta College in Ohio and an M.S., Construction Management, from The Catholic University of America. His affiliations include Board Member, Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo Foundation; Board Member, Buffalo Renaissance Foundation; and Board Vice Chair, Erie Community College.

The staff at LPCiminelli